National Security Study Memorandum 246

TO: The Secretary of State
 The Secretary of Defense
 The Assistant to the President for
 National Security Affairs
 The Director, Office of Management and Budget
 The Director, Arms Control and Disarmament Agency
 The Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: National Defense Policy and Military Posture

I would like a thorough review and analysis of our national defense policy and military posture. This review should consider in detail the security and foreign policy impact of a range of alternative strategies for our strategic and general purpose forces.

The review should address but not necessarily be limited to the following:

-- The current and projected threat to the United States, its allies and U.S. security interest throughout the world.

-- Foreign policy objectives and definable trends which influence these objectives.

-- The overall defense posture necessary to assure U.S. security and foreign policy interests, including the desired balance between strategic and general purpose forces, manpower objectives, and preparedness.

-- Arms control considerations and implications.

-- Budgetary considerations and implications.

The study should be conducted under the aegis of the NSC Defense Review Panel. The study group should be composed of representatives of the
